Membership dues in the Chamber of Commerce are tax deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense. Dues paid to the Chamber are not a charitable tax deduction for federal tax purposes. The Chamber is not a charitable organization, but serves as an advocate for business. Dues are payable in advance on or before the membership anniversary date. Membership in the Chamber continues from year to year unless resigned in writing or otherwise terminated (Robins Regional Chamber of Commerce By-Laws, Article III) The Annual Dues Investment amount is subject to change at time of renewal. By becoming a member of and establishing a business relationship with the Robins Regional Chamber, you agree to receive regular and occasional e-mails at the e-mail address indicated. You may opt out at any time, however you should understand that opting out will prevent you from obtaining most of the information we send regarding membership benefits. The Chamber does not publish or disclose e-mail addresses of its members to outside individuals or organizations. Your membership indicates your acceptance of our Privacy Policy, which may be viewed on our website at www.robinsregion.com

HOW TO DETERMINE YOUR FAIR INVESTMENT:

The dues category and schedules shown have been carefully developed, taking into account the many types of businesses within our community, their various sizes, and their relative "economic stake" in the future of our area. These categories and schedules are also designed to help ensure that the costs of operating a modern, aggressive and effective Chamber are shared by each of its members in an equitable manner.
